FROM: Bureau Chief Jim French
SUBJECT: Structure Fire - 6685 Double Eagle Drive, Woodridge
PAGES: 1

The Lisle-Woodridge Fire District has concluded the fire investigation of the aforementioned address. It has been determined that the area of origin for this fire was in a closet in the hallway. The closet was being used as a religious shrine which included incense and candles according to the occupants. The cause of the fire is attributed to unattended open flame in the proximity of combustible material and is therefore classified as an accidental fire.

For additional questions, contact Bureau Chief Jim French at (630) 353-3000.
